

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Onis Ezell of Campbell is attending the High School Meet.

Carl Risher of Perryville is in the Cape this week on business.

T. M. Pasley of Essex is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

W. N. Sullivan of Poplar Bluff is in the Cape on a business trip.

John Owens of Greenbrier paid the Cape a business visit Friday.

D. B. Bowers of St. Genevieve is in the Cape on a business trip.

Lloyd Graham of Fredericktown is visiting in the Cape this week.

Mrs. John Gold of Chaffee was in the Cape on a shopping trip Friday.

W. R. Walters of Louisville, Ky., came to the Cape Friday on a business trip.

D. C. Travis of St. Louis transacted business in the Cape Friday.

A. J. Kinder a prominent citizen of Kinder, Mo., was in the Cape on a business trip Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latel of Route No. 4 were in the Cape on a shopping expedition Friday.

Otis Bryant of Sikeston is in the Cape on a business trip.

J. A. Glenn of Oran transacted business in the Cape Friday.

J. B. Quigley of Conway, Ark., is in the Cape on a business trip.

H. W. Keller of Jonesboro, Ill., transacted business in the Cape Friday.

D. L. Howard of Springfield, Mo., paid the Cape a business visit Friday.

F. H. Roseur of Marion, Ind., came to the Cape Friday on a business trip.

O. J. Seabright of Cleveland, is in the Cape on a business trip this week.

Harry Gaillier and Harry Dowdy of Hayti are attending the high school exercises being held in this city.

Mrs. F. D. Baldwin, and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Clanton and daughter, all of Bismarck are Cape visitors this week.

The city engineer is busy at work in preparation of the work preliminary to the improvements which are to be made on Ellis street.

A. L. Webb and Carl Adkinson of East Prairie are in the Cape in the interest of the high school meet now going on in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Martin and daughters of East Prairie are in the Cape attending the high school exercises now going on.

Russell Medley, Wiley Dunklin, Marvin Bailey and Glen Phillips of Campbell are attending the High school exercises in this city.

Dr. Frank Nettles one of the most popular and best known physicians of this city, is reported as being quite seriously ill. He was taken to the hospital Saturday morning.

Charles Baker, of Senath formerly a student of the Normal school in this city, is attending the high school exercises, accompanied by Harry White also an ex-Normalite, from Hollywood, who is now teaching school in that city.

Pres. H. A. Nussbaum of the Retail Merchants Association, and Secretary A. H. Hinchey of the Commercial Club will go to St. Louis Sunday morning to meet with the Chairman of the Drummers Committee to work out details for the coming drummer's convention to be held in this city the first week in June.

Harold Lovelace, Max Ostner, Robert Peterson, Bryan Scheeb, Howard Howlett, Wilson Harris, Charleston; Earl Arthur, A. B. Bowman, Sikeston; Louis Waltemate, Poplar Bluff; Louis Thielman, New Madrid; J. A. Short, A. L. Davidson, Senath; H. G. Kushing, Bertrand; O. C. Stuart, Dexter; J. W. Shorer, Blodgett Leslie Brown, Piedmont; Raymond Dunn, Advance; M. E. Dunn, Bloomfield; J. A. Hickman, Puxico, J. Sutton, Festus, E. Brown, Boone Terre; K. O. Williams, M. Cramer, M. Trickey, B. Overmiller, Jackson; A. M. Miller, Portageville, W. E. Bernick, Kelly Bontwell and Riley Slinkard of Oran, are visitors attending the High School meet.

C. C. Hale of Sikeston spent Sunday in the Cape.

D. M. Robinson of Thebes transacted business in the Cape Saturday.

L. S. Bass of Delta was a business visitor in the Cape Saturday.

John W. Hoffman was in the Cape Saturday doing some shopping.

Irene Swank of Charleston spent Sunday in the Cape.

L. E. Keleh of Brownwood was a Sunday visitor in the Cape.

J. P. Carroll of Milwaukee is in the Cape on a business trip.

T. N. Tines of Chaffee was a Cape visitor Monday.

Albert Bollinger of Benton visited in the Cape Sunday.

J. F. Whitsett and R. L. Dean of Advance spent Sunday in the Cape.

A. M. Moore of Advance visited in the Cape Sunday.

O. C. Steinhilber of Springfield, Mo., was a Cape visitor Sunday.

T. L. Schaffer of West Plains spent Sunday in the Cape.

K. G. Williams of Jackson was over Sunday to see the ball game.

L. M. Henson of Poplar Bluff is in the Cape on a business trip.

George Helton of Kinder was a business visitor in the Cape Monday.

G. M. Helton of Puxico spent Sunday in the Cape.

Carl Riles of Portageville is in the Cape on business.

J. A. Short of Senath was a Cape visitor Sunday.

A. H. Hinchey left for St. Louis Sunday on a business trip.

I. R. Ferrier of Ilmo, spent Sunday in the Cape.

Claud Dixon of Memphis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

Steamer Grey Eagle passed up the river at about 9:30 Monday morning.

Robert Keenan of Wappapello, paid the Cape a business visit Monday.

L. J. Bruster and C. W. Bruster of Swinton, Mo., are in the Cape on a business trip.

J. T. Burnet of Tiptonville, Tenn., is transacting business in the Cape this week.

C. M. Wylie and Norval Anderson of Commerce were Cape visitors Sunday.

N. A. Mozley and J. F. Woody of Bloomfield were visitors in the Cape Sunday.

C. Watts, O. Martin and Lou Sestes of Ranney were in the Cape Saturday doing some trading.

Hugh Johnson and Charles Green were charged with assault and battery and were given one day in jail.

Wallace Harker and M. Maigous of St. Louis were visitors in the Cape Sunday.

Geo. R. St. Clair of Wichita, Kans., is a business visitor in the Cape this week.

Father Finney left Sunday for Perryville after a few days visit in this city.

J. B. Quigley of Conway, Ark., is transacting business in the Cape this week.

M. J. Humphrey and Axel Kjer prominent business men of Ilmo, were in the Cape Sunday.

George Rhodenmayer and Andy Blettle of Anzell came to the Cape Monday on a business trip.

Miss Irene Stroder who has been visiting her mother for several days at Advance returned to the Cape Saturday night.

Charles Wipperman the popular tailor left for Ilmo Monday morning where he has some business matters to look after.

Claud McEndree the young man who was injured by having a horse fall, is still quite lame but is improving rapidly.

L. K. McGhee of Chaffee has business in the Cape this week.

O. K. Steele of Perryville is a business visitor in the Cape.

Rosecoe Puffer of Centralia is a Cape visitor this week.

J. W. Hally of Greenville transacted business in the Cape Wednesday.

Thomas Schulz of Caruthersville has business in the Cape this week.

James Orchard of Eminence is a Cape visitor this week.

W. M. P. Owens of Mill Springs is in the Cape on a business trip.

A. L. Webb, Jr., of East Prairie is a Cape visitor this week.

C. O. Borth of Doniphan has business in the Cape this week.

J. P. Schumacher and wife of Puxico, are Cape visitors this week.

Joseph Smith of Kebo, is in the Cape on a business trip.

Henry Miller of Devils Island paid the Cape a business call Thursday.

John Holbe and Ben Webb of Farnell were Cape visitors Thursday.

C. McDowell of Chaffee was a Cape visitor Thursday.

P. G. Spurgeon of Milwaukee is in the Cape this week.

Jos. Monk of Chicago transacted business in the Cape Thursday.

F. W. Hagar of St. Louis is in the Cape on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Lowrance of Jonesboro are Cape visitors.

Paul Wagner of Festus is a Cape visitor this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnson of Aquila are Cape visitors this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lang of Route 2 are in the city on a shopping expedition.

Everett and E. C. Alexander of Thebes were in town Friday doing some trading.

A. R. Martin of Los Angeles is transacting business in the Cape this week.

J. L. Howlett and Charles Andrews of Poplar Bluff are Cape visitors this week.

Charles Cooper of Blythesville is transacting business in the Cape this week.

Chas. B. Miller of Advance is spending a few days in the Cape on business.

Willard Ray of Hayti is in the Cape to witness the high school contests.

Andrew B. Dorris and Walter Davis of Hayti are in the Cape to boost for the home boys in the School meet.

A. L. Ferguson of Boonville, Ind., is transacting business in the Cape this week.

Otis Ezell and Wylie Williams of Campbell are in the Cape attending the school exercises.

Jack J. Purser of Memphis came to the Cape Thursday on a business trip.

R. Cannon and George Cannon of Benton passed through the Cape on their way to St. Louis Thursday night.

Albert Summers returned from St. Louis Sunday morning where he had been for several days on a business trip.

Miss Lenette Schindler of Perryville who has been visiting her cousin Miss Anne Powers, returned to her home Sunday morning.

Mitchell Wolfson of Caruthersville is in the Cape in the interests of the Penicot contestants in the high school meet.

Steamer Oleander, government light house boat laid up in the Cape Thursday night, and proceeded northward early Friday morning.

H. C. Wilkinson and J. Paul Altheide of New Haven are in the Cape in the interest of the High School meet.

The following young people from Charleston are in the Cape attending the High School meet: Wendell Hubbs Alvin Mattingly, Harold Doughty, John D. Patterson, Otis Joslyn, Jr., Otis King and Tom Russell.

River rising. Gauge stands 13.9.

O. E. Burks of Green Brier paid the Cape a business call Monday.

Ella Divine of Oran, was in the Cape on a shopping trip Monday.

R. W. Grover of Allenville was a business visitor in the Cape Monday.

The work of improving Bellvue street has begun.

Mrs. C. Bowden of Birch Tree was a Cape visitor Tuesday.

J. A. McCullough of Marble Hill is transacting business in the Cape this week.

The work of making the improvements and building the new addition to the Lincoln school began Friday morning.

Andrew French, Benjamin Ashby and Harold Lackey are some Charleston contestants who will appear in the different events at the high school meet this week.

Irvin Fish and Daniel Fish of Zalma came to the Cape Thursday night to meet the remains of their brother Thomas Fish, who died of apoplexy in Markanda, Ill. They accompanied the body to Zalma Friday morning.

Charles Sanders, Howard Bailey, Marvin English and H. Brown are Campbell enthusiasts in the town to help boost their home boys to victory in the field meet.

John H. Reppe, of Hillsboro, editor of the Jefferson County Record, with his son, John Reppe, Jr., came to the Cape Thursday to attend the high school meet in which the younger Mr. Reppe will participate in the declamatory contest.

A warrant was issued Monday for the arrest of Freddie Gross for disturbing the peace of Hatty Spray, but up to a late hour had not been able to get service on him.

Daisy Renfro and Maybell Robinson were up in Judge Willier's Court charged with petty larceny, having stolen a number of articles from Bergman-Bartles Store on Broadway. They could not pay the fine and were given one day in jail.

Steamer St. Louis passed up at 3:30 Sunday afternoon and the Rees Lee at 4:30. The Quincy arrived in the Cape at 8 o'clock Sunday evening where she remained until 5 o'clock Monday morning when she continued her journey northward.

C. J. Anderson, J. B. Johnson, D. M. Simmons, J. F. Hilderbrand, John B. Schmuller, Edw. L. Smyth, O. M. Farrell, B. Wolf, T. N. Everett, Kneely Holdomb, R. B. Bowman and H. A. Bush, all of St. Louis were Sunday visitors in the Cape.

Emil Walters, Edgar Summers, and Claud Speaks went to Brownwood Sunday on a fishing trip. They returned with a fine catch, having about 50 pounds of black bass.

A fine baby girl came to the Riverview Hotel Saturday morning, to relieve her proud parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lesem, of the responsibilities of the management of that popular hostelry.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meisenheimer Mrs. Burns, Walter Wilson, George Wilson, Harry Hinton and John Withers of Allenville came to the Cape Monday by automobile on a business trip.

Blanche Richards, Marion Brock, E. R. Ferguson, and wife, Clavie H. Cavetes, Frances Savage, B. G. Tillson, Jack Ogle and Lotta Penn of the Smith Musical Comedy Co., are stopping at the Riverview. This company is booked for the Opera House, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights of this week.

Wm. Lasswell, a young man from Campbell who attended the High School exercises in the Cape last week, sustained a quite painful and serious accident Sunday. While attempting to crank his car his hand was broken, and his condition is so serious that he was compelled to remain in the Cape for medical attention.

The following is a list of young men from neighboring towns who are in the Cape attending the High school exercises: Edgar Allen, and W. E. Revelle, Marble Hill; K. G. Williams and M. Trickey, Jackson, Rolla Anzell and A. Johnson, Chaffee; A. D. Mayfield, Fred Pierce, Louis Chailand, Fred Chailand, Senath; A. W. Harrison, Phil Simpkins and Elmo Tenhoff, Oran; George W. Kirk and Paul Davis, Charleston.

J. R. Quick of Schalls, Mo., had business in the Cape Monday.

Murillo Studio, phone number 252 Call us for an appointment.

E. Felte and A. Kuellmer of St. Louis were Cape visitors Sunday.

Wm. Davis, a prominent timberman of Elsinoe is in the Cape on a business trip.

Steamer Dixie, towing the American Show Boat passed up the river at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lynch of Malden were in the Cape on a shopping trip Tuesday.

The Steamer St. Paul passed down the river Monday night at about 11 o'clock.

Tom Allen returned Tuesday morning from a fishing trip to Brownwood and reports good success.

J. A. and Paul Hickman of Puxico passed through the Cape Monday night on their way to St. Louis.

J. C. Groseclose a popular timberman of Morehouse is looking after business matters in the Cape this week.

The A. F. Maurer Carriage Co., completed and delivered to Meyer & Albert Grocery Co., on Tuesday a big new stake wagon.

The Carpenters Union held a meeting at their hall in Haarg Monday evening, where in addition to the regular routine of business, they indulged in a big banquet.

O. A. Fox the Novelty musical instrument man returned to the Cape Sunday after making quite an extended trip to various adjacent towns.

Harry Medley the young man who was sent to hospital a few days ago, is recovering rapidly from his operation, and expects to resume his work with the Dempsey Groc. Co., in a few days.

Magnus Dempsey who has been confined in a hospital in St. Louis for sometime where he underwent a surgical operation is improving rapidly and will soon return to his home in this city.

W. A. Talet of Williford, Ark., came to the Cape Monday to look after some business matters.

John M. Carlisle of St. Louis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

Mrs. W. M. Gleavis of Jackson passed through the Cape Monday night on her way to St. Louis.

W. S. Eubank of St. Louis is spending the week in the Cape looking after business interests.

N. A. Mozely, a Bloomfield attorney is in the Cape this week on legal business.

C. Calahan of Newark, N. J., is spending a few weeks in the Cape in the transaction of business.

Carl Riles of Portageville has come to the Cape for the purpose of entering the Normal school.

Cyrus H. Bishop returned to the Cape from St. Louis where he has been for the past few days on a business trip.

John Woody of Bloomfield, formerly of this city, has been in the Cape for several days on legal business. He returned Tuesday morning.

The work at the new hospital has been temporarily suspended on account of some misunderstanding among the union men. The plasterers returned to St. Louis Monday afternoon.

The foundation for the new Washington school will be completed Tuesday afternoon, and the contractors will begin the work of constructing the foundation for the Lincoln school at noon Tuesday.

The Steamer Cape Girardeau arrived in the Cape at noon Tuesday, and made a hurried departure for Commerce where she was booked to carry an excursion out of that city Tuesday night.

Fred Dietiker the well known Haarg restaurant man has been compelled to move his building on account of the property on which it stands having been purchased by the Farmers & Merchants bank as a location for their new building. Mr. Dietiker will have his house moved to a lot in South Cape where he will resume his restaurant business.

J. N. Kessinger of Carlinville, Ill., is a Cape visitor this week.

F. F. Norton of Perryville was a Cape visitor Monday.

Ben Jenkins of St. Louis was a Cape business visitor Monday.

John J. Haley of Kansas City, is in the Cape on a business trip.

R. Wetecke of St. Louis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

V. D. Macks of St. Louis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

A. Bessinger of Chicago is in the Cape on business matters this week.

A. H. Hinchey returned from a business trip to St. Louis, Monday afternoon.

R. J. Newport of Malden is in the Cape this week attending to business matters.

J. W. Harrison of Bloomfield is transacting business in the Cape this week.

R. E. Hennessy of St. Louis is transacting business in the Cape this week.

H. Shepherd of Bloomfield came to the Cape Monday to look after business matters.

R. L. Grissom and wife of Bardwell, Ky., are visiting in the Cape this week.

F. F. Wooten of Perryville, came to the Cape Monday to transact some business.

O. C. Richardson of Oswego, is transacting business in the Cape this week.

A. A. Tropf and W. M. Goad of Advance prominent and popular farmers, are in the Cape this week attending to matters of business.

Mrs. Bernard Bahn who suffered an attack of paralysis Monday morning, is reported as resting quietly, and slightly improved in her condition.

Morris G. Levison, Ernest A. Green, R. S. Green, E. W. Downing and H. Sanders of St. Louis, are Cape business visitors this week.

J. P. Overstreet, Earl Overstreet and Jack F. Jones of Memphis are in the Cape looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. White of Leora, passed through the Cape Monday night on their way home from St. Louis. Mr. White has been confined in a St. Louis hospital for sometime where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Irvin Niemeyer the young man who was injured a few days ago by falling from a motorcycle, is improving, but having sustained a Colles fracture, is receiving some special attention with the hope of having his wrist heal without deformity.

The following is a list of visiting contestants, and their friends, in the high school meet now in progress: Albert Babb and Terence Greer, Charleston; L. Hanna, E. Chambers, R. Andrews, L. Waltemate, R. Redwine, Poplar Bluff; S. E. Jones, Dess Bloomfield, Noey Henson, Sikeston; W. C. Butler, Otto Brunham and Miss Nettie Reed, Ellington, Charles Landin, D. E. Cashdollar, and Preston Cook, Campbell; Roger Bailey and Orville Calhoun, Sikeston; Lottie Medley, George McCutchen and Stella Cashdollar, Campbell; Tom Shields, Jeff Rogers; Fred Hunt and John Garrett, Caruthersville, Ruskin McCoy and Ralph Loebe, Sikeston.

CAT KILLS TWENTY-FIVE SNAKES.

Bethlehem, Pa., May 11.—Edward Curry of this town has a cat which has a reputation for being a good ratter. It won new honors recently when it unearthed a nest of snakes in Curry's back yard and killed twenty-five of them.

ABOUT YOUR COMPLEXION.

Nothing is quite so desirable as a good, clear complexion, blessed with the tints of nature's true, robust health, and free from blemish. Nyal's Face Cream, being greaseless, is delightful and handy to use. This is the toilet cream that rubs into the skin and not on to it. You can buy Nyal's Face Cream in two sizes, 25c, and 50c. For your complexion's sake—use Nyal's Face Cream.

Advertisers who use The Tribune do so with confidence that through its columns they reach the sturdy, reliable element of the community.